

Post Office Department.

Please return
this with reply.

OFFICE OF
ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Washington, D.C. May 6th 1889

My dear Mr. Fox,

I will be under renewed obligations if you will assign Mrs. Barrett to the "Counting board", and at the maximum compensation. The place will suit her much better than the one she holds, for the work is not ^{damaging} and conducive of nervousness. If the main obstacle, as she seems to think, is the difficulty of securing the approval of the Treasury officials I will see if I cannot do that. I had an interview with the Director, and shall go to him again if you will notify me a day in advance of your sending the nomination to him. He informed me that he does not pass on the personal of the Mint employees, but simply on the number, wages &c., relying mainly on you for information as to these matters.

If you will ~~not~~ nominate Mrs. B. I will try to take care of it and here

Sincerely, your friend,

W. A. T. J. J. J.

Gen. D. M. Fox

Philân

Seneca

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 157

Post Office Department,
Office of Assistant Attorney General.
Washington, D.C.
May 6, 1889

My dear Mr. Fox,

I will be under renewed obligations if you will assign Mrs. Barrett to the "counting board", and at the maximum compensation. The place will suit her much better than the one she holds, for the work is not so annoying and conducive of nervousness. If the main obstacle, as she seems to think, is the difficulty of securing the approval of the Treasury officials I will see if I cannot do that. I had an interview with the Director and shall go to him again if you will notify me a day in advance of you sending the nomination to him. He informed me that he does not pass on the personal of the Mint employees, not simply on the number, wages &c., relying mainly on you for information as to these matters. If you will ~~not~~ nominate Mrs. B. I will try to take care of it over here.

Sincerely, your friend,
Jas. N. Tyua

Hon. D.M. Fox,
Phila.
Penna.